

States may seek to cut Medicaid for people with disabilities who need Long-Term Services and Supports (LTSS).

“A large portion of Medicaid spending is for LTSS. While only 6% of Medicaid enrollees use LTSS, those enrollees made up 37% of Medicaid expenditures. If states face budget crunches, states may look to LTSS to make cuts.*

Those with the greatest need for Medicaid LTSS may be at risk of State cuts.